

Malini Sathanoori, PhD to Serve on Editorial Board for Cancer Genetics

Brentwood, TN – (Tuesday, November 7, 2017) – PathGroup, one of the largest private providers of pathology and laboratory services in the United States, is pleased to announce that Malini Sathanoori, PhD has been selected to serve on the Editorial Board for the journal Cancer Genetics.

In her role on the Editorial Board, Dr. Sathanoori will be responsible for helping to maintain and improve journal standards by monitoring the editorial policy of the journal in terms of scope and the level and quality of the papers published. Dr. Sathanoori currently serves as the Associate Director of Clinical Cytogenetics for PathGroup. Prior to joining PathGroup, Dr. Sathanoori received her clinical cytogenetics and clinical molecular genetics training at the University of Pittsburgh. She received her doctoral degree from Dr. MGR Medical University in Chennai, India, followed by a post-doctoral fellowship in developmental neurobiology from Tata Institute of Fundamental Research in Mumbai, India. Dr. Sathanoori held a faculty appointment as an Assistant Professor of the Department of Obstetrics/Gynecology, Reproductive Sciences, and Department of Pathology at the University of Pittsburgh School of Medicine where she also served as the Associate Laboratory Director of the Pittsburgh Cytogenetics Laboratory at the University of Pittsburgh Medical Center.

The aim of Cancer Genetics is to publish high quality scientific papers on the cellular, genetic, and molecular aspects of cancer, including cancer predisposition and clinical diagnostic applications. Specific areas of interest include descriptions of new chromosomal, molecular or epigenetic alterations in benign and malignant diseases; novel laboratory approaches for identification and characterization of chromosomal rearrangements or genomic alterations in cancer cells; correlation of genetic changes with pathology and clinical presentation; and the molecular genetics of cancer predisposition.

Join us in congratulating Dr. Sathanoori on this achievement.
